

As part of the tuition for the NP Program, the students study in a smaller class size (about 35 students compared to 55 students in non-Native English Speaker classes). Students also study in an air-conditioned classroom with white board.

Anuban

Prathom

Matayom

The Native Speaker has full control over lesson plans, teaching methodology and classroom rules. Parents are encouraged to attend the Parent / Teacher Conference each year to visit their child's classroom, meet the teacher and discuss their child's progress with the teacher.