

The main hiring season at Dara Academy is mid-January through February. Multiple positions are usually available at that time.

Those who possess a Bachelor's degree from an accredited university are eligible. We hire from Thailand's approved native speaking countries which are: The United States, The United Kingdom, Ireland, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Dara Academy prides itself on professionalism and adherence to educational expectations and cultural norms. Please be aware that if invited for interview, you should dress appropriately, preferably business casual.

Click the link below to apply.

APPLY HERE

Priority will be given to applicants who possess a certified teaching certificate from their home country, degrees in education and experience in teaching. A minimum one year commitment is required, but we seek those who wish to remain longer and are committed to teaching. At Dara Academy, we base our hiring upon teaching qualifications and experience, compatibility with existing teachers and staff, as well as the ability to present themselves professionally and respectfully.

NOTE: Please look for our next hiring opportunity which will be posted on Ajarn.com in January.